1. (Unclassified - GLC) [redacted] talked with [redacted] by way of follow up to the Director's conversation with the Senator and my statement to him that we could offer [redacted] a clerical position giving her consideration for any professional opening which might develop in the future and for which she was qualified. [redacted] explained this situation to [redacted] and also explained that until her security and medical clearances had been fully completed she would remain in the Interim Assignment Branch for orientation and training designed to assist her increase her stenographic speed. She will be under the direct supervision of [redacted]

2. (Unclassified - GLC) Mr. John Masterman, in the office of Representative Walter Rogers, called to thank us for sending a copy of the Soviet economy paper in response to his request and asked to be put on our "mailing list" for similar publications in the future. I explained the background of this particular item to Masterman and informed him we had no such "mailing list." However, I told him if he felt we could be of assistance in any matter in the future, if we could do so, we would be happy to respond.

3. (Unclassified - GLC) Advised David Martin, in the office of Senator Thomas J. Dodd, that I had passed on to the Director Senator Dodd's interest in making a statement regarding the recent adverse publicity directed toward the Agency. I told Martin I thought the Director would like a little time to reflect on this but in the meantime, sent him published materials on the subject. They included a copy of Mr. Dulles' book "The Craft of Intelligence," the report on the Mansfield resolution for a Joint Committee in 1956 with Senator Hayden's individual views and a copy of the floor discussion in the House at the time our retirement bill was passed last year. Martin was most appreciative of receiving this material.
